

Part 5.3 - Councillor Code of Conduct

Donington on Bain Parish Council ('the Council') have adopted this Code setting out the expected behaviours required of its Members - whether elected or co-opted, acknowledging that they each have a responsibility to represent the community and work constructively with our staff and partner organisations to secure better social, economic and environmental outcomes for all. The Council is under a duty to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by both elected and co-opted members of the Council. The Council expects such Members to discharge their duties in line with the General Principles of Public Life set out in this Code.

In accordance with the Localism Act 2011 ('the Act') when acting in their official capacity all Councillors must be committed to behaving in a manner that is consistent with the following principles to achieve best value for our residents and maintain public confidence in the Council. For clarification, the Code of Conduct does not apply to what Councillors do in their private lives.

It is the personal responsibility of each Councillor to comply with the Code and to seek advice from the Monitoring Officer in any cases of doubt that may arise in respect of such compliance.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF PUBLIC LIFE

You should only behave in a way that is consistent with the following principles:-

SELFLESSNESS: Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends.

INTEGRITY: Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties.

OBJECTIVITY: In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit.

HONESTY: Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects the public interest. This is in addition to any duty to declare and/or withdraw on account of having a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest.

PERSONAL JUDGEMENT: Councillors may take account of the views of others, including their political groups, but should reach their own conclusions on the issues before them and act in accordance with those conclusions.

RESPECT FOR OTHERS: Councillors should promote equality by not discriminating unlawfully against any person, and by treating people with respect, regardless of their race, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation or disability. They should respect the impartiality and integrity of the Council's Statutory Officers (Chief Executive, Section 151 Officer and the Monitoring Officer) and of all other officers.

DUTY TO UPHOLD THE LAW: Councillors should uphold the law, and on all occasions, act in accordance with the trust that the public is entitled to place in them.

STEWARDSHIP: Councillors should do whatever they are able to do, to ensure that the Council use their resources prudently and in accordance with the law.

LEADERSHIP: Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example and act in such a way so as to preserve and promote public trust and confidence in public affairs in general and the Council in particular.

On taking up office an elected or co-opted Member must, within 28 days of becoming such, notify the Monitoring Officer of any 'Disclosable Pecuniary Interests' as are prescribed by the Secretary of State and set out in the table below.

On re-election or re-appointment, an elected or co-opted Member must, within 28 days, notify the Monitoring Officer of any 'Disclosable Pecuniary Interests' not already included in his or her Register of Members Interests which is lodged with the Monitoring Officer.

If the nature of an interest is such that you AND the Monitoring Officer consider that disclosure of the details of your interest could lead you or a person connected with you, being subjected to violence or intimidation, the interest must not be included in any published version of the Register of Members Interests, and must not be entered onto a copy of the register that is kept for public inspection. In such instances the published register may state that the detail of such an interest is withheld under section 32(2) of the Localism Act 2011. In the event that the Member discloses such an interest at any meeting, the Member shall be obliged only to confirm that a disclosable pecuniary interest in any matter exists, rather than giving the detail thereof.

OTHER INTERESTS

(1) In addition to the disclosable pecuniary interests notifiable under the Localism Act 2011, you must, within 28 days of -

- (a) this Code being adopted by or applied to your Authority; or
- (b) your election or appointment to office (where that is later), notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of the details of your other personal interests, where they fall within the description set out in paragraph (2) below for inclusion in the Register of Interests:

(2) You have a personal interest which is likely to affect: -

- (a) membership of, or in a position of general control, a trustee of, or participate in the management of, any body directed to charitable purposes.

(3) You must, within 28 days of becoming aware of any new interest or change to any interest registered under paragraph 2 above notify the Monitoring Officer of the details of that new interest or change.

In accordance with the General Principles of Public Life enshrined within the Code of Conduct, (in particular the principles of Honesty and Openness) elected and co-opted Members are required to declare at any meeting any personal interest (other than and in addition to any Disclosable Pecuniary Interest) (whether it be an interest in any land, contract, proposed contract, business, membership of any club or body that is considered to be relevant to any matters under discussion). The Member will then wish to consider whether any person who was in full knowledge of the facts would consider that interest as likely to prejudice their judgement of the public interest, and if he/she so concludes, shall refrain from debate and voting on the matter and shall withdraw from the room (including the public gallery) whilst the matter is being debated.

Whilst not obligated to do so, any member is able to request that their entry in the Register of Members of Interests be updated by the Monitoring Officer so as to include any interests that would not constitute a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest.

Members are advised to seek advice and clarification from the Monitoring Officer in cases of doubt.

Gifts and Hospitality

You are required to notify the Monitoring Officer in writing of any single gift, hospitality (or offer of the same) with an estimated value of £25 or more within 28 days so that the details can be recorded in the Register of Members Gifts and Hospitality. No notification is required in the event that such matters arise in relation to family members.

If a matter comes before the Council in relation to the above, then the Member must declare any such gift, hospitality (or offer of the same) at the meeting that the matter arises, and consider in all the circumstances whether it is appropriate to take part in debate on the matter and vote, having regard to the principles set out in this Code of Conduct and the importance of perception in protecting the reputation of and confidence within public affairs generally and East Lindsey District Council in particular. Appropriate advice should be sought from the Monitoring Officer on such occasions.

Breach of the Code of Conduct

A decision of the Council will not be invalidated just because something that occurred in the process of decision making involved a failure to comply with this Code.

Any complaint relating to an alleged failure to observe the Code, shall be dealt with by the Monitoring Officer in accordance with the Monitoring Officer Protocol.

Dispensations

Any elected or co-opted Member may request in writing (to the Monitoring Officer) to be granted a dispensation relieving them from the restriction of not participating in or voting upon any matter in which they have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest. Such dispensations will only be granted by the Monitoring Officer if in accordance with section 33 Localism Act 2011.

Criminal Offences

A Member commits a criminal offence if, without reasonable excuse, the Member:
